

MUFTI DAY
Friday 23rd November 2018

Mufti Day is Friday 23rd November. The theme for this day is Red and/or Green coloured clothes or Christmas Prop. Please ensure that footwear is suitable for school. In return for this privilege, we ask the following donations from the children.

- Reception - A bottle of... - This can be a bottle filled with anything of your choice.
 - Some ideas - drinks, sauces, shampoo, body cream
 - Size & quantity is optional
 - Must be brand new, unopened and not out of date

- Year 1 - Jolly Jars - 'Jolly Jars' are very popular and gives the children a chance to win a glass jar filled with goodies
 - Size of the jar is optional, but needs to be see-through (please remove any labels) and have a lid (jam jars or pasta sauce jars are ideal)
 - Suggestions on contents - wrapped sweets or chocolates (no nuts please), hair bobbles, stickers, small toys, pencil sharpeners, note pads, nail varnish, bouncy balls - any small items that a child would like to win (please check that anything edible is in a wrapper and in sell-by date and that items are new/unused)
 - The children could decorate their jars with a Christmas theme if they wish
 - If you are unable to fill a jar, a donation of £1 could be brought in on Mufti Day and we will use it to fill the jar on your behalf

- Year 2 - Stationery - pack of stationery to be brought by the kids
 - Some suggestions - pens, felt tips, highlighters, pencils, notepads, sticky notes, rulers, erasers, etc
 - This must be brand new and unopened

- Year 3 to Year 6 - Chocolates - Chocolate Donations will be used on our ever-popular chocolate tombola:
 - Suggestions - Boxes/bags of chocolates, novelty chocolate items, tins of sweets, chocolate filled stockings, bars of chocolate (no nuts please)
 - Please check that items are in sell-by date and are unopened.

Please bring your donations into school on Friday 23rd November. There will be collection points for the children to leave their donations.

Thank you,

Tejal Patel & Dhanya Dhiraj

Music & Story Time with Santa

Our very special visitor this year, Santa, is looking forward to reading stories and playing some music for the children. This is a pre-booked ticketed event. We are trialling a new online booking system to help pay for session at the Christmas Fair. This is to help reduce queuing and provide an allotted time for children to see Santa.

Sessions available: 12.15, 12.50, 13.25, 14.00, 14.35. Each session lasts approximately 20 mins.

Please follow these steps to book your slot:

Go to <https://www.pta-events.co.uk/cannonlane>

1. Set up an account
2. Click on Events and Tickets, select the slot you want and the number of tickets and checkout
3. Click the 'Paypal Check Out' button and pay using Debit card, credit card or Paypal account.

Each ticket is £3.00 per child and includes a small gift from Santa. Children must be accompanied by an adult.
A small booking fee will be payable to cover the transaction fees charged to Friends of Cannon Lane.

The website uses PayPal to process transactions, however you do not need a PayPal account account to buy tickets. During the checkout process you'll be transferred to PayPal where you can sign in to your PayPal account, or click on the 'Check Out as a Guest' button to pay by debit/credit card. (Mastercard, Visa, Maestro)

Tickets will be issued via email and should be printed and taken to the Music & Story Time with Santa Stall to gain entry.

Tickets are sold on a first come first basis. No refunds and no exchanges for another time session.

*Online tickets sales start 8.00am Friday 16th November 2018****
